

IFL Tiebreaking Procedures

The six postseason participants are seeded as follows:

1. The team with the best record.
2. The team with the second-best record.
3. The team with the third-best record.
4. The team with the fourth-best record.
5. The team with the fifth-best record.
6. The team with the sixth-best record.

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs

NOTE: Tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR ANY PLACE

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs finish with identical won-lost-tied percentages, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined.

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Point differential in head-to-head games, with each game's margin of victory being capped at 14 points.
3. Point differential in all games, with each game's margin of victory being capped at 14 points.
4. Point differential in the head-to-head games between the clubs where margin of victory was larger than 14 points.
5. Point differential in all games where margin of victory was larger than 14 points.
6. Coin toss

Three or More Clubs

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after third or other clubs are eliminated during any step, tie breaker reverts to step 1 of the two-club format).

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Point differential in head-to-head games among the clubs, with each game's margin of victory being capped at 14 points.
3. Point differential in all games, with each game's margin of victory being capped at 14 points.
4. Point differential in the head-to-head games between the clubs where margin of victory was larger than 14 points.
5. Point differential in all games where margin of victory was larger than 14 points.
6. Coin toss
